GUIDANCE NOTES

Performing Animals (Regulation) Act 1925

- Under the Performing Animals (Regulation) Act 1925 you must register if you exhibit or train animals to perform in stage performances, television adverts, a circus etc.
- Registrations are not subject to annual renewal.
- Applicants should ensure that they have taken all the necessary steps to protect the welfare of the animal and consider such matters as possible infection and the number/length of performances each day.

You will need to demonstrate to the satisfaction of council officers:

- that the animals are obtained from reputable sources to minimise the risk of disease;
- that measures are in place to protect the animals in the event of emergencies such as fire;
- that health and safety checks, including the risk of infection, are carried out for both animals and staff.

An applicant commits an offence if they knowingly or recklessly make a false statement or omit any relevant information and any licence issued may be revoked.

Information provided on application forms will only be disclosed to other agencies, for example Police, where there is a legal requirement to do so, for the investigation of an offence.

PLEASE NOTE: This application form is open to inspection by the public
